DIRECTIONS

In large skillet, heat 1 tbsp margarine over medium heat.

Combine eggs and green onions; add to skillet. Cover; cook about 2 minutes or until eggs are set.

Loosen eggs from pan with spatula; slide onto plate. Set aside; keep warm.

In same skillet, melt remaining 1 tbsp margarine.

Prepare Rice-A-Roni® Mix as package directs, adding ginger with 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ cups hot water and contents of seasoning packet. Bring to a boil. Cover; reduce heat. Simmer 15 minutes.

Cut reserved cooked egg mixture into 1-1/2 x 1/2-inch strips. Stir egg and ham into rice. Cover; continue to simmer about 5 minutes or until liquid is absorbed and rice is tender.
